

CONCORD.

Mr. and Mrs. Abby Gray returned last week from their trip to Concord, N. H. Hazel Douglas has been assisting in the creamery the past week.

Mrs. Leva Nichols has been visiting her son, Abby Gray.

Miss Ivelina Sampson, who works at Bartlett, N. H., spent Sunday at her home.

Raymond Smith has entered St. Johnsbury Academy.

Mrs. Naomi Clark, who has been in Canada for some time, has returned to Henry Randall's.

Miss Amy Goodresult has gone to Victory Hill to teach, and Miss Hattie Blodgett is teaching at South Victory.

Earl Buckminster of St. Johnsbury spent the past week with his grandmother, Mrs. Isabel Frye.

Mrs. Minnie Seavey will close her engagement at the hotel this week. Mrs. Hattie Wright will take her place.

Miss Mamie Harvey and Mrs. Alfred Sundberg were guests of Mrs. Archie Bowen at Damon's Crossing last week.

The chemical engines that were purchased a short time ago have arrived and been tested.

Mrs. F. A. Brewer went to Newport last week on an excursion.

Mrs. Daniel Gilson, who has spent the past seven weeks with her sister, Mrs. O. T. Harvey, has returned to her home in East Burke.

The food sale and entertainment for the benefit of the Universalist church, held last Friday evening, was a success.

Wesley Weir of Portland is visiting his sister, Mrs. George Reed.

The following teachers have been engaged to teach the schools in town: At East Concord, Miss Rosella Thomas of Lunenburg and Miss Lena Moore of McIndoes; Royalston Corner, Miss Katie Joslyn; Kellogg school, Miss Nellie Sayers; Concord Corner, Mrs. Louis Moulton of East St. Johnsbury; Brook school, Miss Lilla Hastings; Four Corners, Miss Myrtle Spaulding; Miles Pond, Mrs. Mary Rogers; North Concord, Miss Mary Wesley; Castle, Miss Geneva Sargent.

Mrs. Dudley Valentine and two children who have spent the summer at the hotel have returned to Yonkers, N. Y.

Miss Nadine Richardson left Saturday for St. Johnsbury, where she spent Sunday with her aunt, Mrs. Henrietta Goodall, and left Monday for Glendie, Montana, where she will spend the winter with her brother, Fred Hudson.

Mrs. J. W. Williams of Boston is visiting her brother, Fred Sampson.

Mrs. Clara Chaplin is quite ill at her home. Mrs. Hattie Wright is caring for her.

Mrs. Kidder and daughter of Proctor are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Gray.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Stacy were at Lyndon, Saturday, to attend the Grant reunion.

Miss Helen Braley returned to her home in Hartford, Saturday, after spending a few weeks at O. D. Cobleigh's.

Mrs. Gale and son of Canada have been spending a few weeks at George Reed's. Mr. and Mrs. Archie Weir and Miss Lizzie Weir of East Concord were there over Sunday.

C. L. Stacy is at Frank Carpenter's at Waterford, where he is building a silo.

William Joslyn, a life long resident of Concord, died at the home of his brother, Marshall Joslyn, last Wednesday morning. The funeral was held at Kirby Friday afternoon. Rev. A. M. Smith of Plainfield was called here to officiate.

Mrs. A. E. French is spending a few days with her aunt at Fairlee.

The friends of Philip Sheridan Woodbury gave him a rousing party in the nature of a corn roast at his home last Wednesday evening in honor of his birthday. Two huge fires were built near the house and the company to the number of 67 enjoyed the biggest corn roast of the season. After this they repaired to the house, where Rev. A. B. Enright, in behalf of the friends assembled, presented Mr. Woodbury with a beautiful mantle clock. It was a very enjoyable occasion.

All members of Woodbury W. R. C. are requested to provide generously for the dinner served to the members of the district convention at Old Fellows Hall, Friday, and to send in their food if unable to be present.

Miss Mamie Harvey is spending a few days with Miss Vera Boyd at Charles-town, Mass.

Miss Adeline Sugg of Granby was the guest of friends in town last week.

Miss Lillian Enright left last Monday for Montpelier, where she has entered the seminary.

Miss Martha Parks resumes her school work in the Union schools at St. Johnsbury this week.

Miss Jennie Cunningham of Boston has been spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Harry Lilliecar.

There are 86 pupils enrolled in the village schools: 32 in the primary, 21 in the intermediate, 23 in the grammar, and 10 in the high school.

Mrs. Tom Hunter returns this week from Old Orchard and will work for Mrs. L. S. Richards.

It Quiets the Cough

This is one reason why Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is so valuable in consumption. It stops the wear and tear of useless coughing. But it does more—it controls the inflammation, quiets the fever, soothes, and heals. Sold for 60 years.

"Ayer's Cherry Pectoral has been a regular life preserver to me. It brought me through a severe attack of pneumonia, and I feel that I owe my life to its wonderful curative properties."—WILLIAM H. TRUITT, Wawa, Pa.

Made by J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Also sold by SARGENT & SONS, PHILADELPHIA, PA. HASTEN RECOVERY BY KEEPING THE BOWELS REGULAR WITH AYER'S PILLS.

Mrs. Laura Payne and son Harry of Hardwick are guests at S. W. Hill's.

Mrs. William Chapman is entertaining her sister, Mrs. Griswold, of Morrisville.

$100 Reward $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known for the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by all Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

PEACHAM.

The social event of the season was an entertainment at Mrs. Clara Bailey's Thursday afternoon, when Mrs. Jeffers and Miss Marsh entertained the sixty club and their husbands and a few other invited guests to the number of about 80. Guests from out of town present were Miss Carrie Woodhouse and her niece, Mrs. Julia Hay from New York, Mrs. Isabel (Bade) Williams from Newark, Ohio, and Mrs. Etta Moore Yagerhorn, from Lowell, Mass., Miss Elsie Choate, Miss Ida Bailey, Miss Elsie Hooker and Miss Anna Blanchard favored the company with vocal and instrumental music. A bountiful collation was served and a very pleasant afternoon was spent.

The annual meeting of the Ladies' Missionary society will be held in the Ladies' parlors Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Way and children from Manchester, N. H., are visiting at George Stoddard's.

Mr. and Mrs. Yagerhorn and little daughter Marion, from Lowell Mass., are visiting friends in town.

Walter Bayley and Will Morse attended the fair at Sherbrooke last week.

Mrs. Emily Wheeler Bliss is visiting her brother, Mark Wheeler, and Mrs. George Clark at East Peacham.

Miss Ida Bailey went Friday to her school at Lowell, Mass.

George Percy has bought the farm on the mountain road, formerly owned by Oliver Davidson.

Miss Carrie Woodhouse and Mrs. Julia Woodhouse Hay and her son Arthur, returned to their home in New York, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin D'Oag from Ann Arbor, Mich., spent two days at Mountain View house last week. Mrs. D'Oag was a daughter of the late Isaac Worcester, a former resident of Peacham.

Harvey Wheeler from Manitoba has returned to his former home at East Peacham.

Mrs. Ellen N. Gray spent last week at Burlington and vicinity taking a trip to Westport, N. Y.

There was a corn roast on the common above the village Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Goslin returned from their wedding trip Saturday, and on their journey they attended the Sherbrooke fair.

John K. Williams from Newark, Ohio, is expected today.

Thos. and Maurice Jackson, who have been at Mrs. McClary's all summer, returned last week to their home at Baltimore.

Miss Sara A. Bailey returned to her school at Cambridge, Monday.

New fall millinery just received at Fraser's, West Danville.

Starving to Death.

Because her stomach was so weakened by useless drugging that she could not eat, Mrs. Mary H. Walters, of St. Clair St., Columbus, O., was literally starving to death. She writes: "My stomach was so weak from useless drugging that I could not eat, and my nerves so wrecked that I could not sleep; and not before I was given up to die was I induced to try Electric Bitters; with the wonderful result that improvement began at once, and a complete cure followed." Best health tonic on earth, 50c. Guaranteed by Flint Bros., and F. G. Landry, druggists.

SUTTON.

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Ingalls visited friends at Brownington Center, last week.

Dr. R. H. Burke's mother, who has been in Massachusetts and Rhode Island the past two months, has returned to her home here.

Collins French, who sold his place here at the village, has bought Frank May's place.

W. E. Edwards from Bradford, while at work for E. L. Forbes, felled a tree, and in some way was caught by it, breaking one bone in each leg, above the ankle joint.

Rev. W. H. Holmes, D. D., and wife, who have been in this and adjoining towns the past few weeks, have returned to their home at Chicago.

There were no services at the Free Baptist church, last Sunday, the pastor being at the Vermont Yearly Meeting at Huntington Center.

Mrs. H. A. Blake has received word that her father, J. P. Otis at Clay Center, Kansas, is in very poor health. Mr. Otis went to Kansas from West Burke several years ago and is well known in this session.

Miss Sadie Blake did not go to Hardwick to her school until Thursday, on account of sickness in the family.

Miss Madge Burnham went to her school at Lyndon Center last week Monday, and Herbert Burnham went to his school at St. Johnsbury Center this week Monday.

The Grange social Thursday evening was very well attended. After a liberal supper, interesting exercises were carried out.

Albert Ferrin of Montpelier and W. A. Hanson were called to St. Johnsbury on business Wednesday.

Mrs. Ida Barr of East Cabot visited at Shady Lane Farm, owned by W. A. Hanson, last week.

Between 40 and 50 people attended a corn roast at W. A. Hanson's last Tuesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Sanborn furnished music to entertain the company, and all report a fine time.

There was a large attendance at the Grange meeting Saturday night, and as it was "gentlemen's night," the chairs for officers were all filled by men. An interesting program was well carried out during the lecturer's hour.

Frederick Wells Campbell from New Haven, Conn., was in town Saturday.

EAST BURKE.

The republicans are naturally proud of their victory last week. The vote of 177 for Mr. Proctor is believed to be the largest ever given a republican candidate, while Mr. Clement ran 25 behind his vote of 1902, and received last week 1:35 than half the vote which he and Mr. McGettrick received four years ago. For the second time in 25 years a representative was elected on the first ballot.

Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Farmer visited at Belmont Farm last week.

Master Erlon Eggleston, who has been quite sick the past week, is a little better.

O. W. Smith of Island Pond, and daughter, Miss Alice Smith of Boston, visited Mrs. Smith's sister, Mrs. Eleanor Phippen, last week.

The W. F. M. Society met at the Methodist parsonage Friday afternoon.

The Ladies' Aid met with Mrs. Clara Parker Wednesday afternoon.

George E. Thurber, who has been in Boston the past three years, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Thurber.

Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Bemis visited at B. Godding's Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin W. Fairbanks of Watertown, Mass., spent Saturday and Sunday at John Dasher's.

Mrs. Merton Vance is seriously ill.

Mrs. Daniel Gilson is more comfortable. Two daughters of Will Stafford of Wheelock are visiting relatives here.

Mrs. Fred Brown was able to attend church Sunday.

R. W. and Mrs. D. G. Guest visited at Island Pond last week.

E. A. Darling has returned to New York.

J. B. Jenkins' brother Edwin, wife, and daughter Eva, from Beloit, Wis., are visiting him.

Mrs. McNeil was able to attend church last Sunday for the first time for over a year.

The King's Daughters meet with Mrs. Fred Brown next Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Clara Parker visited at St. Johnsbury last week.

Milo Jenkins has moved into his house in the village.

George Eggleston was called home from the 'Ville Thursday, by the illness of his little boy.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Lane are stopping here with Mr. Lane's mother, Mrs. Sarah Lane.

Agents Wanted.

We want the Calfskins, Hides, Sheep Pelts, Tallow, Bones, etc., collected in your vicinity.

Can't you arrange to purchase these goods for us this spring? We will furnish the cash with which to buy; we will also furnish tags, advice sheets, taking off directions, cloth posters to enable you to advertise the business, etc., etc.

We pay the highest cash prices and keep our customers thoroughly posted on the condition of the market and pay the freight.

To any one writing us and mentioning this paper, we will mail full particulars. Address:

CARROLL S. PAGE, Hyde Park, Vt.

SOUTH WHEELLOCK.

Mrs. Jane Mitchell of Kirby is stopping with her granddaughter, Mrs. H. C. Sherburne.

Warren Jones, wife, son Warren, and daughter Martha, and Mrs. Gibson of Lyndon were at C. F. Noyes' the first of the week.

The North Danville boys came over and played ball with the mill boys, carrying off the cup with a score of 25 for the Danville and 5 for the mill boys.

About nine years ago Mr. and Mrs. Frank Simonds took a small child to care for, from a mother whose husband had deserted her. Week ago last Wednesday the father came here with an officer and demanded the child. They went to Montpelier to have the trial Thursday, and Friday night they returned with the child, the judge having given her to them. The father never had helped support the child in any way, and never had been to see her but once in the nine years.

Road Commissioner Buckley has begun work on the roads again, putting in permanent road.

Perley Niles of St. Johnsbury spent Sunday with Leon Pierce.

B. L. Gerry of Lyndonville spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. A. E. Weed.

Frank Pierce, O. N. McPherson, Miss Florence Jenkins and Miss Mae Peak were called to Montpelier on the Simonds case, Thursday.

For Over Sixty Years

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP has been used by millions of mothers for their children while teething. It disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth, send at once and get a bottle of "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for Children Teething. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures Diarrhoea, Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for children teething is pleasant to the taste and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Price 25 cents a bottle. Sold by all druggists throughout the world. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup."

NEWARK.

The town has just completed a fine piece of state road between M. W. Ball's, and C. H. Newman's.

A. D. Gray of East Burke visited his daughter, Edna Gray, Sunday.

Barton Gray was in St. Johnsbury Monday, on business.

Edna Gray returned to the Lyndon Institute, Tuesday.

Mrs. M. W. Ball and Mrs. Susie Gayler were both quite ill and could teach school only a part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Smith, of Burke, visited friends in town Sunday.

Ada Simpson, of St. Johnsbury, has been spending a week in town among friends.

Mr. and Mrs. John Austin, of Beebe Plain are visiting at C. H. Bean's.

WEST DANVILLE.

S. J. Woodward had the misfortune to have one of his horses break its leg last week in the pasture and they had to kill it.

Mrs. Elmer Judd, of Wolcott, and her brother George Churchill, from Hastings, Neb., visited at Mrs. Olerick's over Sunday.

Mrs. Albert Daniels is visiting at Hardwick.

Grace Bartlett has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. George Gile.

Mrs. Kate Olerick is caring for Mrs. Emily Brickett.

Henry Carrick, of Hallowell, Me., who has been very sick for some time, is improving in health and is soon coming to his sister's, Mrs. Mary Clifford, his old boyhood home.

Mrs. Sally Perkins has been visiting her son, F. D. Perkins, for several days.

The potato crops very light. It looks now as though the yield would not be one-half of the usual crop.

E. N. Danborn and wife were called to Swanton, Saturday, to attend the funeral of Mr. Danborn's nephew.

G. V. Frasier and wife returned Friday from their trip in New York and Boston, after being gone two weeks.

Albert Daniels has purchased an automobile.

The school starts with 20 scholars in the primary department and 25 in the grammar grade.

The Breath of Life.

It's a significant fact that the strongest animal of its size, the gorilla, also has the largest lungs. Powerful lungs means powerful creatures. How to keep the breathing organs right should be man's chiefest study. Like thousands of others, Mrs. O. A. Stephens, of Port Williams, O., has learned how to do this. She writes: "Three bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery stopped my cough of two years and cured me of what my friends thought consumption. O, it's grand for throat and lung troubles." Guaranteed by Flint Bros., and F. G. Landry, druggists. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

KIRBY.

Miss Alice Nichols from St. Johnsbury visited at P. C. Houghton's the last of the week.

Mrs. R. B. Wentworth, who has been confined to the bed for several weeks, is slowly improving.

Alonso Brooks visited at L. J. Nickerson's Tuesday and Wednesday last week.

G. W. Buzzell was in town, Saturday, looking up telephone business. There will be ten new telephones added to the Citizens' line in the near future.

Mrs. Flora Jones from Victory is unable to teach the Mountain school as reported last week, and Miss Winnifred Walbridge from Concord has taken her place.

What is a cold in the head? Nothing to worry about if you treat it with Ely's Cream Balm as soon as you begin to sneeze and snuffle. Neglected, the cold may grow into catarrh, and the air-passages be so inflamed that you have to fight for every breath. It is true that Ely's Cream Balm cures catarrh, promptly and certainly. But you know the old saw about the ounce of prevention. Therefore use Cream Balm when the cold in the head shows itself. All druggists, 50c., or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren Street, New York.

HARVEY.

The fall term of school commenced Monday with Miss Grace Bartlett, teacher.

James L. Woodard has purchased of Will Hastings his residence and one and a half acres of land.

Mike Colman, of St. Johnsbury, recently visited at the home of James McGill.

Mr. and Mrs. James Arthur, and two children of Barret were at J. L. Woodard's last week.

W. G. Bartlett, and Orono Jamieson have just finished out an extensive painting job at West Banet and returned home.

Miss H. B. McDonald is with her daughter, Mrs. F. M. Currier, for a few days.

Ned Pettengill has commenced threshing with his eight-horse power gasoline engine and large sized new St. Albans separator.

Eugene and Charles Kittredge of Walden were in this vicinity this week.

Do you use an atomizer in treating Nasal Catarrh? Then you will appreciate Ely's Liquid Cream Balm, the mildest, quickest, surest remedy for this disease. In all curative properties it is identical with the solid Cream Balm, which is so famous and so successful in overcoming catarrh, Hay Fever and Cold in the head. There is relief in the first dash of spray upon the heated sensitive air-passages. All druggists 75c., including spraying tube, or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren St., N. Y.

LUNenburg.

The concert and tableaux given by the Ladies' Aid society Friday evening passed off well, and many were much pleased with the selections given by Miss Thompson. The tableaux were presented by a competent committee and were very pretty. Ice cream and cake were served. The committee worked very hard to make the evening a success.

The first meeting of the Woman's club was held with Miss Bell, Tuesday afternoon.

At the town meeting last week L. L. Bishop, democrat, was chosen representative late in the evening.

Miss Nay of Cambridge, Mass., is a guest of relatives in town.

Fred Turner and wife of Canaan are visiting his son, Charles, at the farm.

Charles McGrath and Miss Katie Monahan were married in the Catholic church, Sept. 4.

Dr. Earnest Palma returned to Brooklyn, Thursday evening.

The Browns are having their store painted, Elbridge Carbee doing the work.

Miss Susie Hale and brother Charlie return to Coaticook this week.

Mrs. Roberts and a friend from Lancaster were in town Saturday.

Mrs. Francis D. McLaughlin and Miss A. O. Dewey of Boston are registered at the Heights House for some time.

GROTON.

Town meeting passed off quietly. The day being pleasant a large number of the voters were present. L. M. Ricker, the republican candidate for town representative was elected over F. M. Weld fusion candidate by 71 majority.

Wilson Pillsbury left Wednesday for Burlington, to complete a course in the Vermont Business College.

Miss Nellie Knox returned from a visit in Meredith, N. H., last week Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Keenan visited relatives in Calais the first of the week.

O. M. Jenson of Peacham, was in town Thursday.

John Welch and aunt, Mrs. Laura Hitchcock, were in Cabot, Friday, to attend the funeral of her sister, Mrs. French.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Morrison are visiting relatives in Manchester, N. H., this week.

Morris Coffin went to his school in Burlington, Monday.

T. A. Meader, of Ryegate, was in town Saturday.

Claude Nelson of Ryegate has been engaged as butter maker for Groton Creamery and will begin work about Sept. 20.

Frank Miller, of Peacham, was in town Thursday.

Miss Martha Davidson, who has been in poor health for some time, is slowly failing.

Wallace Clark met with a serious accident Thursday while loading wood at the bobbin shop. His horse became frightened at an automobile, throwing him down and the wagon passed over him. Several bones were broken and at the present time his recovery seems doubtful.

Ask any "JAP" that you may see, "Why the Czar, with Bear behind," had to climb a tree.

The Yanks, God bless the Yanks, says he, They gave us Rocky Mountain Tea. Flint Bros., and F. G. Landry.

GREENSBORO.

Mrs. L. A